

The Clock Is Ticking!

For the special people you haven't yet found gifts for, this P&C collection of creative, affordable items does the trick. Most offer ways to add a charming personal touch.

{ Caregiver }

1 Sprinkles Cupcake Mix
 Mix Sinfully delicious, this posh collection yields fresh cupcakes from the famed Sprinkles bakery (7 locations nationwide). Whipping them up is a great activity for your child and her caregiver to do together! Sprinkles, $14 each.

2 Freak-O-Bags
 Each quirky little guy you see here unfolds into a 16" x 16" lightweight tote bag. Big enough for books, sweet treats, and more. Kamibashi $15 each.

3 Sasha Pink Journal
 Start this handmade, fabric-covered journal off with a quick note and drawing from your child about how much she adores her caregiver. Needham Lane, $15.

4 Design It Yourself Eco-Speakers
 Portable and made of 70 percent recycled material, these universal mini speakers invite you to personalize them with your own decorations! Colored pencils included. Fashionation, $15.

STILLS: MARK LUND

fun finds LAST-MINUTE GIFT GUIDE

{ Teacher }

1 Book Plates
 Vintage-inspired labels that also work for supply boxes, cabinets, drawers, and more. Have your child fill them out with his teacher's name first. 15 per pack. The Baby Gardner, $12 each.

2 Berry Thirsty Mug
 No apples this year! This sweet strawberry-covered mug is a unique fruit twist on classic fruit-themed gifts. Hatley, $11.

3 Kamibashi Dolls
 Each of these spunky keychains has a unique "mission" (written on the tag). Vincent (left) inspires creative genius, and the Monkey King (right) helps you be a good leader when duty calls. Attach a homemade charm that spells the teacher's name in letter beads. Kamibashi, $10 each.

4 Hot Chocolate Gift Package This set, from "Boston's Oldest Chocolatier," includes marshmallows, chocolate drops, and peppermint sticks. Phillips Candy House, $14.

STILLS: MARK LUND