The Mindful Traveler

On-the-go accessories that honor Mother Nature and add convenience to your trip

1. KAMIBASHI CARES KEY CHAINS Each of these quirky critters comes with a positive thoughts message on its tag (Oscar the Orangutan encourages you to be a tree hugger and Pachó the Parrot makes sure all your flights are smooth, for example), and a portion of the proceeds goes to organizations that help save wildlife. Kamibashi, $10 each.

2. LOLLACUP Have you ever seen a more adorable sippy cup?

Refillable and easy-to-clean, this little guy keeps disposable juice boxes and paper cups out of landfills. Free of BPA, phthalates, lead, and other toxins. lollacup, $18.

3. ENDANGERED SPECIES GIANT PANDA STROLLER Instill in your little one the importance of conservation and a love of animals right from the beginning. Monarch butterfly and lemur leaf frog designs also available. Baby Planet donates a portion of proceeds to organizations that help save these species. Baby Planet, $170.

4. REPEAT UTENSIL SET Reusable bamboo fork, spoon, knife, and chopsticks that come in a case made of recycled plastic bottles. Case available in five colors and attaches to your bag or belt with a caribiner. To-Go Ware, $13.

5. REUSABLE SNACK AND SANDWICH BAGS No need for throw-away plastic bags when you can use these, featuring beautiful and simple graphic designs printed using water-based inks. Made of organic cotton in the USA. Graze Organic, $24–$38 per set.

6. WASTE-FREE LUNCH KIT Two stainless steel LunchBots snack boxes and two organic cotton napkins by Fabkins in an organic cotton lunch bag. Mimi the Sardine, $55.
