

Can Fish Giggle?

It's 2am and I can't sleep, so instead I bring you The String Doll Gang.

From Gigglefish:

Meet The String Doll Gang®, a band of kooky characters that has been growing steadily since the initial 16 members made their North American debut in May, 2005. Handmade in Thailand using one continuous piece of string, each doll has his or her own special power.

My favorites are:

Sid

Protects you against people who have bad taste in music.

Warrior Woman

Teaches you to pick your battles wisely.

and saving the best for last is...

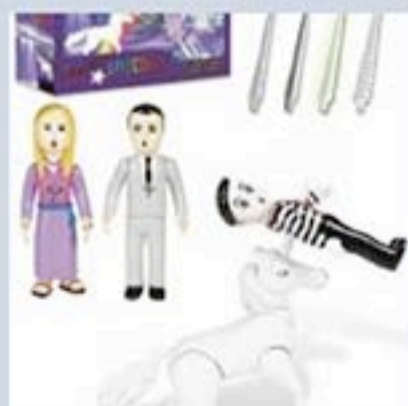

Moody cow!

Moody Cow helps keep a smile on your face when the whole world has gone mad.

These are almost as cool as The Avenging Unicorn set I bought my sister a couple of holidays ago:
