A basket of Easter gift ideas all under $15

Easter is coming up fast, landing on April 4th this year, meaning there may be quite a few collective gasps when the calendar is flipped to the next month. I know you may not have the time to leisurely shop for the perfect Easter basket items, so I've done a little hopping around to some of my favorite shops for you.

My tween still looks forward to her Easter basket and I know she'd love a little String Doll from Kamibashi sitting atop her sweets—they even have a little Luv Bird. I also love Kamibashi's crazy DEBO Rabbit Superheroes and their gorgeous, sophisticated Japanese Stickers printed on Japanese Washi paper or foil for older kids.

Any ideas where I can find allergen-free Easter candy? Nearly everything I see is processed in a plant with peanuts so I'm looking for egg-free and peanut-free goodies. -Mary
