

Life of a Crazy Beader

THURSDAY, MAY 20, 2010

● ● ● Boho Frida

FOLLOWERS

with Google Friend Connect

Followers (8)

Already a member? Sign in

BLOG ARCHIVE

▼ 2010 (59)

▼ May (14)

Lots and Lots of Beads!

Boho Frida

Flashback to the 60's

Love Makes the World Go 'Round

Silver & Gold Buyers

Valerie Made Me Do It!

What do YOU do with Nutella?

Free of Debt Bracelet

Good Idea, Bad Idea?

From My Afternoon Walk

Walk On Turtle Creek Boulevard

Miss McGillicutty Necklace

From Earrings to Necklace

Introducing Boho Frida! Frida is a Kamibashi String Gang Doll that I ordered from www.kamibashi.com. One of the String Gang Dolls was featured in a beading book I purchased. When I looked at the Kamibashi website, I fell in love instantly with Frida. She "empowers you to paint your own reality", it said. I thought this described me and she was dressed in PINK -- my favorite color! I had to have her! There were several Kamibashi String Gang Dolls that I also liked. One was the "Moody Cow". I will probably have to order more of them. I am keeping this necklace for myself, but if you would like one, pick out a Kamibashi String Gang Doll from their website and let me know which one you would like. I can put it on a plain black leather cord or add beads and chains. You tell me what you would like.

Posted by Crazy Dallas Beader at 10:09 AM

0 comments:

Post a Comment